

CIRCULAR LETTER.

M

HOLLY SPRINGS, MISS., OCTOBER 1879.

SIR :—You are appointed one of a precinct Executive Committee.

We send you a book containing the names of the voters at your precinct. It will be your duty :

1st—To ascertain the political status of every voter whose name appears upon this book.

2nd—It will be your duty to ascertain the names of all Republican voters who have died or removed, or are under age, or from any cause incompetent to vote, and make a list of the same, writing opposite each, the cause of his incompetency.

3rd—You will ascertain the names of all those Democratic voters who have not registered, and urge them to come out and register at Holly Springs,

4th—You will make and enter in the book sent you, separate lists of all Democratic, Republican, Greenback and doubtful voters.

5th—In performing these duties, notify all voters in your beat to meet next Wednesday night to organize a club.

6th—You are also the finance committee for your beat. Collect as much as possible to hand in with your report

7th—You are also the committee of arrangements for the meetings advertised for your beat. It will be your duty by personal exertion, to get the people to turn out, and make the meetings a success, and the more extensive and grander the preparation, the better.

8th—In furnishing the County Executive Committee, the information asked for in this letter; and which is so essential, leave nothing to guess work, but let us have accurate information, and know who each voter is, and where he stands. To carry out these instructions, it will be necessary to devote several days of arduous labor to the work. But we trust that the importance of the work to be done, will be sufficient to induce you to enter upon it,

You will complete the work at once, and report to the Committee here next Thursday, the 23rd inst. By order of the Executive Committee.

W. S. FEATHERSTON, Chairman.

ARTHUR FANT, Secretary.
